Spanish envoy attends book launching at USJ

BEIRUT: Spanish Ambassador Juan Carlos Gafó, attended on Wednesday at Saint Joseph University (USJ), the launch of the book titled “Arabic Manuscripts of Lebanon” which constitutes a part of the project “Handwritten Heritage of the Lebanese manuscript libraries: a vector for dialogue and peace,” funded by the Spanish Agency for International Development Cooperation (AECID) and implemented by the Spanish NGO AIDA. The ceremony was also attended by Culture Minister Selim Wardy and USJ Rector Rene Chamussy. – The Daily Star